*CREATIVE CLOTHING — Prereq. — Clothing 1 —
Grades 11, 12 — 6 Periods — (5)*

This course is designed for students who have a good sewing background and are interested in improving more advanced techniques. Projects will include work on a novelty fabric (fur, leather, suede), Vogue pattern, and lingerie. Students will be encouraged to experiment with textiles and fabric dyeing to create projects for the home as well as wearing apparel.

SYMPHONIC (MARCHING) BAND — Grades 10, 11, 12 — 6 Periods — Elective — (5) WHERE VALID CONFLICTS EXIST, HOURS CAN BE ARRANGED INDIVIDUALLY WITH MUSIC DEPARTMENT APPROVAL.

This ensemble is the major performing group of the High School Instrumental Program in the symphonic and marching areas. Instruction will emphasize integration of refined music performance skills, conceptual understandings, and appreciation of music within the musical mediums and requirements of the organization.

TYPEWRITING II — Grades 10, 11, 12 — 6 Periods — (5)

This course is a second year of typewriting instruction meeting five times a week for a full year to develop to a vocational level the operational techniques, production, mechanics, and information about business procedures. Instruction covers the use of the electric typewriter. Emphasis is placed on accuracy, speed, and the production of acceptable copy on business letters, tables, and business forms. Confidence in their ability to meet office standards should help students find successful employment.

WELCOME SUPERINTENDENT MR. LEWIS ERNST

Mr. Ernst came to Hingham in 1963 as a history teacher. He later became the Assistant Principal of the high school until 1970 when he left Hingham to become a Principal of Framingham North High School. He returned to Hingham in 1974 as Assistant Superintendent. He served in this position until January 1982 when he became Superintendent.

THANK YOU DR. WILLIAM MAHONEY

Dr. Mahoney came to Hingham in 1965 from Connecticut. During his Superintendency he brought many new programs to Hingham. His recognition throughout the country reveals his contributions to both the Hingham Public Schools and education in general.

Angela Epple

Angela Epple came to Hingham in 1959. She was involved with the Drama Club and the Debate Club. She is known for her yearly Thoreau Walk. Students who had the fortune to have Mrs. Epple in American Literature had the pleasure of learning about a variety of great American personalities. She died in 1981.

Carl Schmatzler

Carl Schmatzler came to Hingham in 1955. He taught industrial arts and mechanical drawing in both the junior and senior high school. His concern for detail encouraged many of his students to pursue careers in design and architecture. He died in 1981.

Jack Wallace

Mr. Jack Wallace came to Hingham in 1956 from Randolph. He served as Department Head of Mathematics from 1965 to 1968. He then returned to the classroom full time. His contributions to the school are most extensive. He retired in 1981.

Mr. Thomas Lane came to Hingham in 1954 and taught art in both the junior and senior high schools. Many of his students have become well recognized in the field of art. He retired in 1981.

Stan Curtis was one of Hingham's warm and friendly custodians. He always was seen doing some task to keep the building clean. He retired in 1981.

THE YEARBOOK STAFF THANKS MR. DONALD SULLIVAN

YEARBOOK STAFF

The Yearbook editors; Peter DeBruin, Doug Ewing, Mark Murphy; would like to thank all those who contributed to the making of this book, especially Richard Knab and Marcia Brown.

Hilary Aborn: Die young and stay pretty. Blondie.

Nicole Achille: Music says it all with an English accent. Elton, Beatles, Bowie Forever . . .

Rose Mary Alciere: "You can't spread peanut-butter with a paper knife." Gerald Ford.

Charles Anderson: "If you don't say anything, you won't be called upon to repeat it." Calvin Coolidge

Kathy Archard: "I found him in the shining of the stars." Tennyson

Jane Arena: "Never look back, walk tall, act fine." David Bowie '76

John Armstrong: Friends are only as close as you let them be.

Margaret Avery: If you see someone without a smile, give them one of yours.

Mary Allen Avery: "It is the time you have wasted for your rose that makes your rose so important." Antoine de Saint Exupery

Anthony Joseph Barbuto: Even if it takes all I have to give, I'll give it all.

Kathleen Barrows: For some dreams can come true.

Keith Bartlett: "And though our health we drank a thousand times, it's time to ramble on." Led Zep

Judith Ann Barton: Best friends are those who know to keep the same silences.

Kenneth Ian Barton: I was here but now I'm gone, I left just my name to carry Jill M. Baylow: Music is the gift of the soul that washes away the dust of every day life.

John Belton: A.L.S.P.

Sarah Benson: Education is what remains when we have forgotten all that we have been taught.

Kevin Berard: If the Doors of Perception were cleansed, man would see life as it truly is — infinite.

Karla Berggren: Love doesn't make the world go round but it sure makes the trip a lot easier.

Lance Billard: And in the end, the love you take is equal to the love you made.

Nancy Bishop: I don't want you to worry for me cuz I'm alright.

Susan Lee Black: We are the seedling about to flower, we are the morning about to flower, we are the dry earth breathing in showers, we are the pilgrim finding a way.

Susan Blackwood: I am not afraid of tomorrow, for I have seen yesterday and I love today.

Christine Bonnichon: Unless you try, you will never know if you can do it, but when you do, GO FOR IT.

Kevin Bonnyman: Two roads diverged into a wood and I — I took the one less traveled by, and that has made all the difference.

Laurie Ann Boretti: The truth of the man lies in all his dreams.

Prisca Boris: Life is crazy . . . like a patchwork quilt. PARTY!

Stacey Brash: But for friendship all would be loneliness. Since then I've never looked back, it's almost like living a dream.

Rika Brazis: Remember Me.

Julie Ann Brown: Bob (7-9-81) B.M. + S.H., N.B. + S.S.V. Nights, California Bound, Frick + Frack, Tak-A-Taco.

Marcia Lynette Brown: My education is dismal, I went to a series of schools for mentally retarded teachers.

Marilyn C. Brown: I am not afraid of tomorrow, for I have seen yesterday, and I love today.

Jamie D. Brown: You may think that you're here for the pizza on Fridays, you know what you're really here for, it's that brand new leopard-skin pill-box hat.

Kathleen M. Browne: Life can only be understood backwards, but it must be lived forwards.

Lynne Burke: When you think your life is in confusion just remember it's a grand illusion.

Maureen Butler: "It is only with the heart that one can see rightly; what is essential is invisible to the eye." The Little Prince Karen Caira: What we have here is a failure to communicate.

Jayne Marlene Capano: Life is what happens while you're making other plans.

Kathleen Mary Cappella: A true friend is like the setting sun, they will always return.

Andrea Dickinson Carr: Accept me as I am so I may learn what I can become.

Daniel M. Casey: To live your life in your own way . . . to reach for the goals you have set for yourself . . . to be the you that you want to be — that is success.

Denise Marie Cataldo: The worthiness of life is measured by the intensity of friendship.

Caryl Chambers: Even the longest journey begins with a single step.

Robert Wayne Ciccolo Jr.: All of a sudden it's my life and I'm living it.

Jay Clogston: Is your mind so small that you have to fall in with the pack wherever they run.

Denise Cody: Time pass . . . but memories last.

Lori A. Colford: How beautiful a day can be when kindness touches it.

Joan Comer: "I've been happy lately thinking about the good things to come, and I believe that it could be that good things have begun." Cat Stevens.

Rabon A. Cooke: In the world there are people who do things and people who get the credit. Become part of the first group, there's far less competitions.

Bill Cronin: Life is not measured by the time we live.

Alison Culler: The secrets of life is enjoying the passage of time.

Mark Cummings: I've been dazed and confused for so long it is not true.

Scott Dahill: "He was a wise man who originated the idea of God." Plato.

Elizabeth T. Danforth: Although many miles may separate us and we may never meet again, The happiness will remain, A memory mounted and framed, Forever in the album of my life — wish you were here.

Edward E. Dann: And that's the name of that tune.

Peter DeBruin: The meeting of two personalities is like the contact of two chemical substances: if there is any reaction, both are transformed.

Karen Delmonico: Losing on your own terms is better than winning on anybody else's.

Josephine DeVito: Do something today to bring happiness to someone whose pleasures are few.

Marie Diaz: A friend is just a smile away.

Stephen R. Diaz: The fittest shall survive but the unfit may live, wear gaudy colors or avoid display it's all the same.

Christopher DiCenso: Minds are like parachutes — they only function when open.

James Diezemann: Set your course by the stars, not by the lights of Passing ships.

Lani Jean Doland: Don't walk in front of me, I may not follow. Don't walk behind me, I may not lead. Walk beside me, and just be my friend.

Stephen J. Dolphyn: "The time is gone, the song is over, thought I'd something more to say." Pink Floyd.

W. Richard Donaldson: "Man this really takes the cake This town is like a prison And I just gotta make my break"

Lisa Doody: The best times are yet to come . . .

Susan Doonan: And you and I climb over the valley to the endless seas . . . my friends . . .

Amy Dorion: Hope is not a dream but a way of making dreams become reality.

Laurie Doyle: If you're too busy to laugh, you're too busy.

Colette Driscoll: Be happy be free; and live it up!!!

James Duff: Live every day as your last, for one day you'll be right.

Joseph Duggan: Full conformity is possible only in the cemetery.

Susan Edwards: "Well, I must endure the presence of two or three caterpillars in order to become acquainted with the butterflies." The Little Prince.

Theresa E. Emens: There are no straight lines in my life, and all my roads have bends. There are no clear-cut beginnings and so far no dead ends, so on I go.

Chris Emery: Catch the wind, We're gonna see it spin, We're gonna sail, Leave the Day.

Catherine R. English: Arise, go forth and conquer.

Douglas A. Ewing: "We're all screwed down for life — but what's a little air in the pipes, or even a lot of shit in the hair, if you have good memories?" — John Irving.

Elizabeth L. Faherty: For self is a sea Boundless and measureless.

Paul J. Falvey: Attempt the end and never stand to doubt; Nothing's so hard, but search will find out.

Catherine Fenlon: Time passes quickly and so life; therefore take each moment and live it to it's fullest.

Deborah Fenton: I see, but cannot reach, the height that lies forever in the light.

Joseph Ferrini: Long Live the Gumpa.

Kristin Fischer: One beginning has ended but many more have just begun ... Goodbye H.H.S. —

Wayne Fitzgerald: It was good while it lasted, but twelve years is enough.

David Flanagan: "And if you feel that you can't go on, in the light you will find the road." Led Zeppelin.

Robert Fox: My candle burns at both ends; it will not last the night; But oh, my foes, and oh, My friends — It gives a lovely light.

Chuckie Furtado: "I get by with a little help from my friends"

Scott Garrison: Goodbye all you people. There's nothing you can say to make me change my mind. Goodbye ...

Susan Gatturna: I'm young, I'm wild, and now I'm free.

Vin Giacchotti: "Let's blow this clambake!"

Mark Giarrusso: Better to be a "has been" than one who never was at all.

Barbara Gibbs: Hesitate before you "turn the Page."

Martha Godwin: Friends we knew, follow us through, all of the days of our lives; love we shared, waits for us there, where our wishes forever reside.

Sara Godwin: You can really learn a lot that way. It'll change you in the middle of the day. Though you're confidence may be shattered, It doesn't matter.

Christina Goldberg: True friendship is like sound health, the value of it is seldom known until it is lost.

Lynda Goler: I have not yet begun to fight. I over came my first struggle, now I must win the war.

Lisa Gonyea: Free to invent myself.

Gregory Goudas: It's better than no quote at all.

Thomas Hale: Kurtis: Behind me 76-82, guess where ya sit on G-day Sarah!

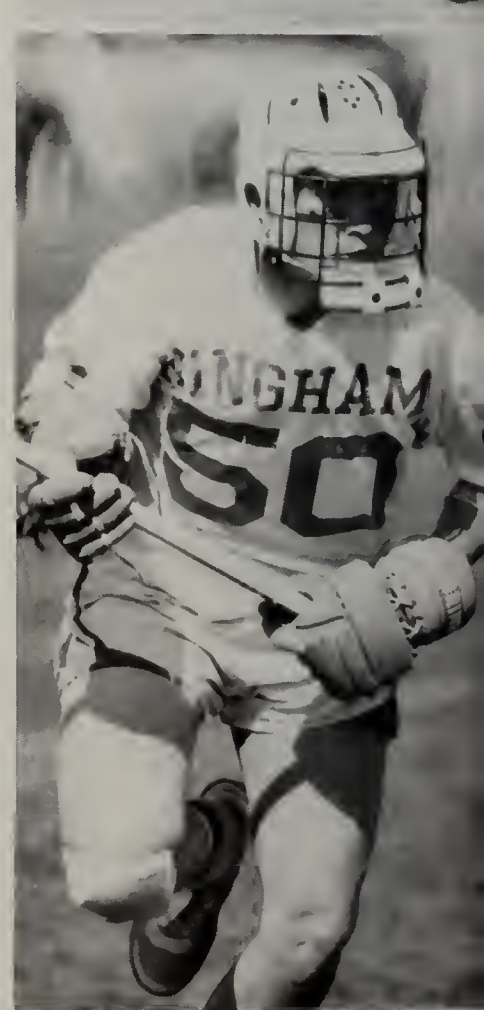

Greg Hall: It's great to be alive.

Kurt Harling: A knowledge of the past prepares us for the crisis of the present and the challenge of the future.

Elizabeth Harrington: A friend is someone who will make us do what we can when we are saying we can't.

Joanne Heapes: Dream what you dare to dream — Go where you want to go Be what you want to be — Live

Elizabeth Hess: For the foolishness of God is wiser than man's wisdom and the weakness of God is stronger than man's strength.

Pamela Hill: Smile and the day is yours.

Billy Holler: I'll be back.

Kristen Honkalehto: It may be an end, but only the beginning to many beginnings yet to come.

Pamela Hooper: Today is the tomorrow we worried about yesterday.

Meredith Horre: Laugh when you can, cry when you have to, be who you must — it's a part of the plan.

Joseph F. Howley IV: Life is either a daring adventure, or nothing at all.

April Hutchinson: Life: A long, hard road leading nowhere — unless you have a sense of direction.

Stephanie Igo: Nothing's easy, Nothing good is free.

Alan L. Ireton: Be nice to people on your way up, because you meet 'em on your way down.

Andrea Jenkins: Though nothing can bring back the hour of splendor in the grass; of glory in the flower; we will grieve not, rather find strength in what remains behind.

Douglas Johnson: Live life for today not for tomorrow, for tomorrow may never come.

Sarah Johnson: The world is love and life are deep even as his eyes are wide.

Stephen Edmund Johnson: Music and women I cannot but give way to, whatever my business is.

Steve Kanke: Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm.

Lisa Elizabeth Kay: Do your part

Susan Keenan: We cannot direct the wind, but we can adjust our sails. Keep on cruisin' '82!

Brian Kehoe: Special K gets you off to a great start

Richard Knab: Happiness is the state of minimum regret.

Barbara Koehlinger: What a long, strange trip its been.

Linda Koffske: If you love something very much set it free. If it doesn't return, it was never meant to be yours. If it does, love it forever.

Timothy Krall: Tell me that we're leaving, I can't believe it's true, we're finally getting out of this — ZOO.

Olga Prehsfreunb — Krieghammer: To know someone here or there with whom you can feel there is an understanding in spite of thoughts unexpressed — that can make of this earth a garden.

Michael Labonte: I know but I don't know.

James Lahive: If you don't beat the system, the system will beat you.

Elizabeth Lambert: Time may change me but I can't change time . . .

Charles Langenhagen: You only live life once, so why not go for the Gold

Douglas A. Lapham: We can cherish nothing less than our random understanding of death, and the earth-shaking love that draws us to one another.

Jane Larson: Love understands and therefore waits.

Barbara Anne Leonard: The key to life is not having everything you want but learning to enjoy what you have.

Michael Leonard: He who can see the Invisible can do the Impossible.

Mike Lewis: A.M.F.

Michael Longo: Hide the Pie.

Richard Loud: Let's go.

Kristen Loughman: Happiness does not lie at the end of the road; it is found along the way.

Sarah Lucas: If I could just do it over, I would do it better — maybe even right.

Nancy Lynch: What you do today is important because you take a day of your life to do it.

Linda MacDonald: Lisa, should we join forces, or go it alone? Friends till eternity.

Lisa MacDonald: Our memories of yesterday will last us a life time.

Bonnie Anne MacPhadden: California Bound, Four Wheelin', Frick + Frack
TAK-A-TACO

John Magill: There is no finish line.

Dolores Winslow MacKay: Why don't you take a good look at yourself And decide what you see.

Kelly Mahar: We've come all this way there's no turning back.

Kimberley Mahar: The time is here and I'm one step in front.

Michael Manjos: Aint it funny how time fades away.

Brian Mansfield: Everybody knows this is nowhere

Juliana Mascella: To have is to share the same beautiful dream.

Eben Marsh: The best race hasn't run.

Betsy A. Marshall: Love Ya Always

Debra J. Marshall: Paul — 9/27/80.

Christopher Martin: Experience is the name everyone gives to their mistakes.

Dawn Maxfield: The past has been good, The present is great, But the future has to be better.

J. Heather McCallum: No one will ever win the battle of the sexes . . . There is just too much fraternizing between the enemies.

Chris McCann: It is better to be a lion leading a herd of sheep than a sheep leading a herd of lions.

Doug McClenic: As long as you live in the past you will never grow old.

Jim McCormack: My Army jeep is still alive Got locking hubs And four wheel drive Ain't got no radio Ain't got no mag wheels Ain't got no digital clock
Ain't got no clock The paint job is lookin' blue The whitewalls are missing too
But until I get my car back This'll do.

Kathleen McDonald: We've lived through good and bad and we'll always make it. And your invited to the opening of my restaurant.

Lisa McDonough: It's not the way you play the game it's if you win or lose you can choose . . .

Brian J. McGinn: When I cannot sing my heart I can only speak my mind.

Angela McGrath: Betty, Plotting and Planning . . . That's what I'm talking about!

Clinton Scott McGrath: When the cup is full, Carry it even

Mary Anne McKenna: We have only to open our eyes to see the hand of God

Scott McLaughlin: Nobody gets my goat.

Julie T. McManus: Many dreams come true and some have silver linings I live for my dream and a pocket full of gold.

Susan Pease: "Yesterday is in our hearts, tomorrow is in our dreams."

Susan Peterson: "Musical training is a more potent instrument than any other, because rhythm and harmony find their way into the inward places of the soul."

James G. Petipas: "They don't want to listen, and I don't know why? But when judgement day comes, they won't be flying high."

Lisa Pignataro: "Nothing can resist the person who smiles at life."

Donna Pitaro: "Everybody wants to be a star livin' in the limelight."

David D. Pizzelli Jr.: "It's not the school I hate, it's the principle of the thing."

Paul Scott Pompeo: "I'd rather have a bottle in front of me than a frontal laboratory."

David Powers: "Show me a thoroughly satisfied man, and I'll show you a failure."

Nancy Powers: "Love is what makes the world go round. It's what makes it worth the trip."

Raymond Pratt: "The cleatest way into the Universe is through the forest wilderness."

Eddy Quirk: "Later, much."

Allison Rattray: "We live in the present, we dream of the future and we learn eternal truths from the past."

Larry Redcay: "Desire for nothing except desirelessness, hope for nothing except to rise above all hopes, want nothing and you will have everything."

Julie Rayburn: "If you love something set it free, if it comes back to you, it's yours, if it doesn't, it never was."

Kimberly Reid: "Walk slowly, don't run, for the child of your youth, just born and eternal, cannot follow you." It's just a "STATE OF MIND".

Rob Reis: "Baseball, Weekends forever."

Mark Ricci: "Stay thee behind me Satan, for the road to Hell is paved with good intentions."

John Richards: "Countless expansions will arrive and flow inside us."

Shelley B. Richner: "P.F. . . . Basketball . . . College can't be half as difficult as choosing a senior quote."

Sheryl Ross: "Courage is not freedom from fear, it is being afraid and going on."

Adrian Rosso: "Work as though everything depends on you, pray as though everything depends on Him."

Douglas Routhier: "Leaves are falling all around it's time I was on my way, but still I'm much obliged such an unpleasant stay."

Ted Rubbo: "Why do you think they call them "tastebuds"?"

George Rudenauer: "Character is a diamond; it scratches all other stones."

Suzanne Ryan: "Been up and down since I turned seventeen. Well, I've been on top and then it seems I lost all my dreams. But I've got it all back, I'm feeling better everyday Tell all those pencil pushers better get out of my way."

Lisa Ann Rydin: "I'm free! I'm free! And freedom tastes of reality!"

Joyce Scally: "Doing what you like is freedom, liking what you do is success."

Stephen Gerard Schelle: "There is a road, no simple highway, between the dawn and the dark of night, and if you go no one may follow; that path is made for your steps alone."

Valerie Schofield: "Yesterday is a cancelled check; tomorrow is a promissory note; Today is the only cash you have; so spend it well."
